

What: PÖFF, seminar for film producers and manuscript writers

When: 2 December in Tallinn, Nordic Forum Hotel

Who: Tom Kronhoffer (lawyer, MAQS Stockholm), Karolina Ullman (lawyer/partner MAQS Tallinn), Evelin Pärn-Lee (lawyer/partner MAQS Tallinn) and Johan Maunsbach (lawyer MAQS Tallinn).

Schedule

- 08.30 – 09.00 Gathering at the venue, registration
- 09.00 – 09.15 Introduction by PÖFF
- 09.15 – 10.30 First session INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS 101
Main responsible: Karolina Ullman
 What are the different IPR's
 Main differences Europe / common law / USA
 What is important for film makers to know about IPR?
- 10.30 – 10.45 Coffee break sponsored by MAQS
- 10.45 – 12.00 Second session THE PIRATE BAY COURT CASE
Main responsible: Tom Kronhoffer
 What was it all about?
 Representing the film industry in the case
 What is the status?
 What to expect for the future?
- 12.00 – 13.00 Workshop session PRACTICAL IPR
Main responsible: Evelin Pärn-Lee
 The workshop will focus on practical issues for film makers
- 13.00 – 14.00 Lunch

MAQS is a modern law firm combining professionalism and tradition with creativity and efficiency. 185 lawyers in MAQS offices located in Sweden, Denmark, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and Poland are focused on providing legal advice and service to large and mid-sized corporation within the private and public sector. Our aim is clear and simple. To be the best at finding the solutions that help strengthen your business. For more information: www.maqs.com